

In 2007, we started a link with a school in Tavullia,
near Pesaro on the east coast of Italy.

It is near Ancona, where children from Scoil Raifteirí visited in May, 2007

There is a festival there, called:
Il Mondo della Pesca Incontra Il Mondo della Scuola
The World of Fishing and the Classroom

Past-pupils and parents at our meeting to devise the timetable (07.02.08)

11th February 2008

Dear Twins

How are you? We are fine.

What are you doing at school at the moment? We are working hard.

The first term has just finished and the second is starting.

How many school terms do you have in Ireland?

We have about three months' holiday in the summer and two weeks at Christmas, what about you?

Is your Italian improving? In English we are studying the past simple of regular and irregular verbs. It's quite difficult.

What is the weather like in Ireland now? Here it's cold but it isn't raining or snowing. In this area it doesn't often snow. It's a pity because we like the snow very much.

Bye for now

We are looking forward to receiving your letter

Love from,
